Lt. Jean Scheel
Visits Parents July 19-45

Second Lieutenant Jean Scheel, army nurse, now stationed in the Baxter General hospital operated by the army at Spokane, Washington, has arrived here to spend two weeks' leave with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Scheel of Sunny Slope. Lieut. Scheel was graduated from the local high school and afterward entered the University of California where she studied to become a nurse and since graduating, joined the army and has been stationed in the northern city.

The attractive army nurse is enjoying the visit at home and meeting many friends.

Jean Scheel Nov 21-45

Lieutenant Jean Scheel, attached to the army nurse corps, was recently transferred from Baxter hospital, Washington, to the hospital at Fort Ord, near Monterey. She is close enough to Petaluma to make trips home occasionally. Miss Scheel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Scheel, has been in the service for the past year.
